

Berta Caceres

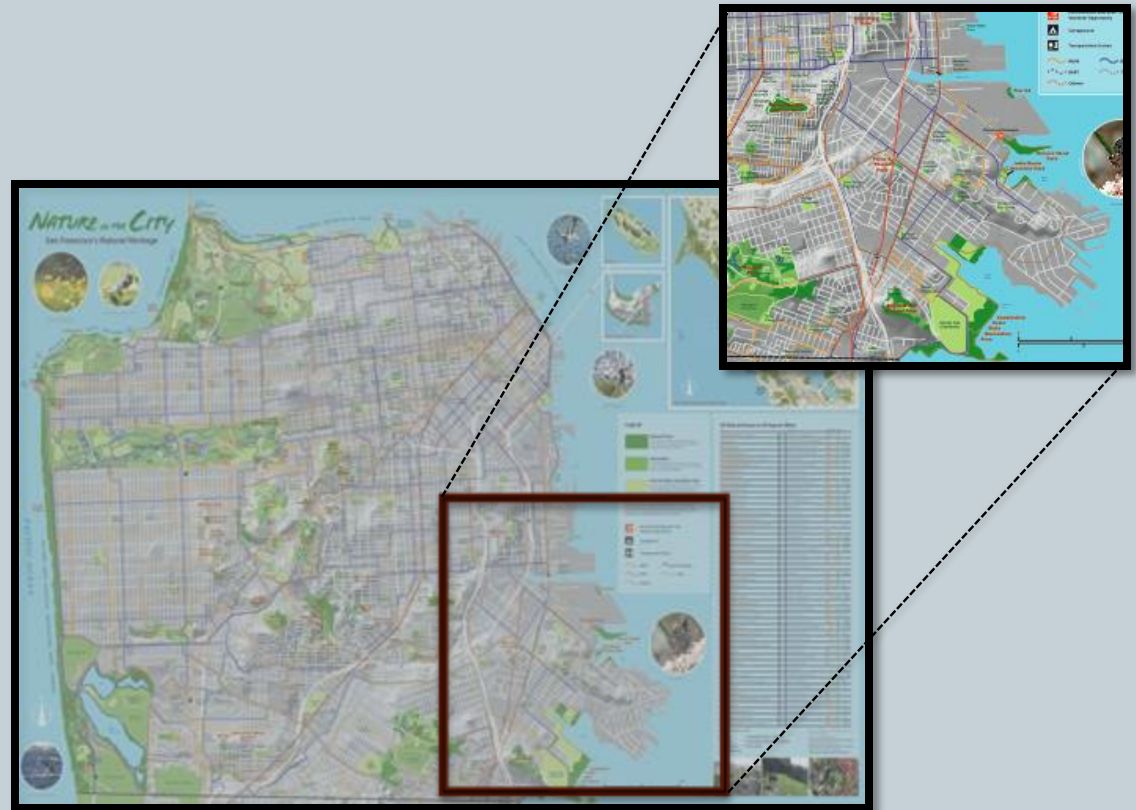

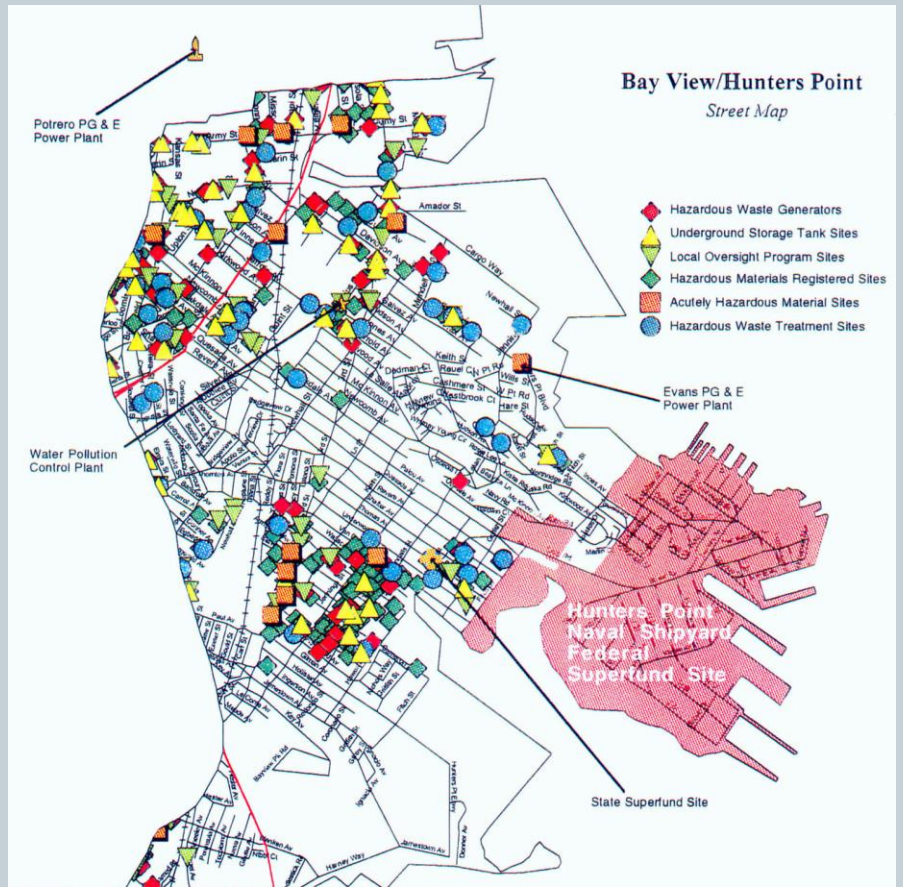

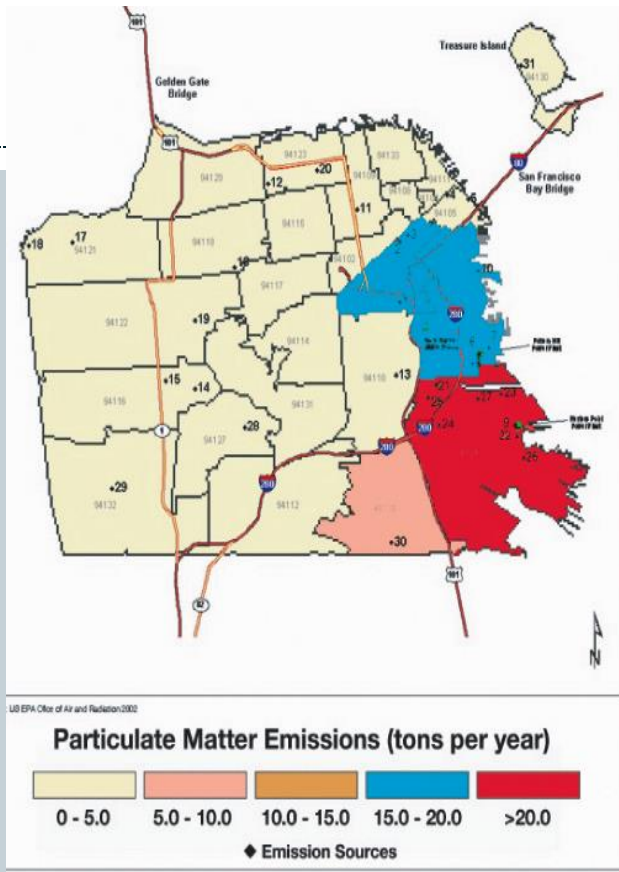

Wangari Maathai

LEGACY & LAND USE

All species have a right to their basic needs, including:

- ◆ Clean Air
- ◆ Healthy Food
- ◆ Non-Polluting Environment
- ◆ Non-Toxic Communities
- ◆ Open Space
- ◆ Equitable Education & Work Opportunities

EPA Maps of Pollution in Potrero Hill/Hunters Point (<http://www.islascreek.com/AirPollutionSoutheast.jpg>)

CLIMATE CHANGE INOCULATION

WHERE LAND MEETS WATER

PRINCIPLES & OBJECTIVES

SAN FRANCISCO BAY
CONSERVATION & DEVELOPMENT
COMMISSION

- Honor, respect, protect and elevate communities and their voices.
- We're all connected and should treat one another with mutual respect.
- Understand, share, and establish new leadership pathways to positions of power at BCDC.
- Assess current conditions and impacts of BCDC operations to establish metrics and measurable results of EJ policies and advisors.
- Develop easy-to-follow guide on conducting meaningful community engagement.
- Inform and guide creation of an EJ/Social Equity policy implementation strategy that leads to early wins and cultural transformation at BCDC.

STRUCTURAL CHANGE

PLANNING

- Bay Adapt Implementation
- Community Benefits Metrics
- CBO Directory Mapping Tool

PERMITS

- Regulatory Staff Training
- Design Review Board

OPERATIONS

- Racial Equity Plan
- Sea Level Rise Public Education

POLICIES

- EJ & Social Equity Policy Implementation Strategy
- Long-Range Planning Amendments

“If Peace is found on common ground, equity is made on Public Lands”